About Clinton Family Medicine

Welcome to Clinton Family Medicine. We're close to home and have the staff you trust, but we're a lot more than another doctor's office. As a part of Self Regional Healthcare physician practices, we provide a team of physicians, advanced practice providers, nurses and specially trained staff, all working together for your health.

We provide access to advanced diagnostics and specialty services and the resources of the area's largest healthcare provider - a complete network of care for you and your family.

We strive to provide a compassionate environment that allows individualized attention for the emotional, physical and spiritual health of each of our patients. We want to help the community better understand their health and how it can impact their lives.
